

Tag Across London: Teams Rulesheet

By Larry from Mads & Larry

Overview

- In this game, two teams will compete and interchange as Runners and Chasers
The Runners' goal is to catch the Chasers to score a point
The Chasers' goal is to connect their stations to score a point
- Chasers will track the Runners using a tracker but not vice versa
- As a general rule, don't split up your team. Only within an enclosed space.

Runners

- Runners have a 15 minute head-start when their turn begins
- Walking anywhere any time is legal but taxis, private couriers, and the London Eye are banned
- Buses can only be used for up to 10 minutes at a time, and you cannot get on another bus immediately
- To be caught, a Runner must be physically touched by a Chaser
If a Runner is caught, they gain no points
- A Runner must physically touch the station signs of their Start and Destination stations to connect them. They must send a picture to the Chasers
- Upon leaving or entering a station, Runners must message the Chasers:
"[Leaving/Entering] [station] at [time]"
e.g. "Entering Charing Cross at 14:30"

Rolling Stations

- Upon starting, the Runners must roll a Start station
- They must then roll the Destination wheel for that Start, and write the route down
- If a station has already been used, reroll

Challenges

- For the Runners to change trains, they must spin for a Challenge. Getting back on exactly the same train is permitted.
- Runners must exit the station to spin for a Challenge
 - They may reroll once per round
 - If a challenge is not completed within 15 minutes, they may reroll
- There must be proof of completing the challenge
- If they know a challenge has already been done, spin again

Bonus Points

The winner is the team with the most points at the end of the game. BUT:

- If there is still a tie, whoever completed the most challenges wins

Chance Wheel

- Touch a church. It must be a real church or recognisable as a church building.
- Touch a bank. It must be a real bank. Not Bank station.
- Lay, entirely, on the ground for thirty seconds. You must be filmed. You may go to a safe place to do this.
- Using the name of the last tube station you were at, pretend it's an acronym and come up with a sentence it could stand for. It must be a grammatically correct sentence.
- Wait for two minutes. You must stay where you are.
- You must buy something with the union jack on it.
- Take the bus to another station. The station must be within visual range when you get off.
- You must buy and wear a hat.
- Go to a charity shop (you must step inside).
- Find a public toilet. You must touch the entrance.
- You must call your number neighbour(s) (adding 1 to the last digit of your phone number), if someone picks up, you must explain what you're doing.
- Stand inside a telephone booth.
- Touch grass. It must be real grass. You must touch it.
- Get to the nearest street beginning with A, B, or C.
- Stand on a bridge. Does not have to be a river bridge.
- Sit in a park for two minutes.
- Find a coin on the ground. It must have already been on the ground.
- Pick litter for 60 seconds. Time starts when the first litter goes in the bin. Do not litter.
- Find a small, folded paper tube map and touch it. You must not already be in possession of it.
- You must say five separate points of things you have enjoyed about today sincerely, and at least one explanation for each one.
- Draw the station entrance you have just left. You must spend at least 2 minutes drawing.
- Draw your opponents (without reference). Spend at least 3 minutes and genuinely try.
- You must pour water over your head.
- Find a vendor that sells Wii games. Touch one.
- You must buy a gift for one of the chasers.
- Film a bird (must be a real biological bird, not a woman).
- Drink tea.
- Find an advertisement and read the entirety of it out to the camera.
- Take a memorable picture.
- Buy and post a postcard to one of the chasers.
- Donate to charity.
